SOCIALISTS START
PEACE MOVEMENT

Germans Would Approach Members of Party in Allied Countries.

SENTIMENT IS GENERAL FOR END OF CONFLICT

Believe That Alsace and Lorraine Should Be Autonomous—Think War Cannot Last Long.

THE HAGUE, April 22.—The socialists are making an earnest effort to seek for a basis on which the cessation of the war can be brought about. Dr. Brechtel, a prominent member of the German socialist party, is now in Holland consulting the Dutch socialist leaders with a view to getting into communication with the British, and, through them, with the French socialists in an endeavor to bring pressure to bear on the various governments.

Unanimous for Peace.
It is declared that the German socialists are virtually unanimous in favor of peace and against any annexation of territory. It is said that although the socialist newspapers in Germany are not permitted, under penalty of suspension, to publish criticisms of the government or express skepticism demanding the results of the war, at least the members of the party who were admitted and from which the party were absent free discussions in favor of peace took place.

The general view of the socialists, it is said, is that Alsace and Lorraine should belong to neither France nor Germany, but should be autonomous.
The argument is that if France recaptures the provinces a ranking for vengeance would be held by a large part of the population, which, it is asserted, does not desire to be governed by the French, and that therefore the situation would be as bad as ever.

East Prussians Want Peace.
It is reported that the great East Prussian land owners are trying to treat for peace with Russia, owing to fears that their property will suffer, but the socialists are said to have expressed the opinion that the prospects of a durable peace are more likely through an arrangement of terms by Germany with France and England and by evacuating Belgium.

With reference to the Dardanelles it is declared that the German socialists believe that it will not be feasible to internationalize or neutralize the straits until a United States of Europe has been established.

The socialists of Germany assert that it will be impossible to starve Germany, but express the belief that the war cannot continue much longer in consequence of the disastrous effect on the economic conditions of all the countries engaged.

FLIES FIFTEEN MILES WITH HIS FOOT TORN OFF

Heroic French Aviator Bombarders, Is Hit, But Finally Reaches French Lines.

PARIS, April 22.—A story telling of the heroism of an aviator described as "de M." whose father was killed in one of the first engagements of the war, has been sent to the Petit Journal by a correspondent with the northern army.

"de M." was sent with a sergeant to bombard a corner of the Belgian coast, where the Germans had been showing exceptional activity. They had to pass over a region where Roland Garros accomplished his most sensational exploits, and where the Germans had installed a hundred anti-aircraft guns.

The aeroplane was piloted safely through a storm of shells while the sergeant dropped bombs according to instructions, and then turned toward the French lines, rising to a height of 5,000 feet to avoid the hail of shrapnel.

Hit by German Shell.
Suddenly a German shell smashed the front wheels and hurtled through the machine, severing the aviator's left foot. The aeroplane began to plunge downward, but "de M." gripped his teeth and righted the machine, keeping it headed toward camp. The sergeant, who thought they were done for, supported the pilot with his left arm while with his right he started to pen a farewell letter to his mother. They still had fifteen miles to fly to reach a place of safety.

"Shall I take the helm?" asked the sergeant.
"No, no, you. Trust to me. We'll get back to France all right," was de M.'s reply.

The sergeant then abandoned his letter writing and supported the pilot with his arm. de M. stuck to his task and took the machine safely back to the starting place and crawled out unaided through the hole made by the German projectile. Not until he reached the hospital at Zuydote did he faint.

Hague Government Undertakes to See That Goods Do Not Reach Germany.

Arrangements have been made between the British and Dutch governments whereby, through embargoes or other measures, possibility of supplies reaching Holland by water being trans-shipped to Germany is eliminated. Official notice has been given that not only conditional contraband, such as food supplies, but even goods on the contraband list of the British government, may be given safe passage to Holland through the blockade lines.

The British embassy issued this statement:
"1. Shipments of wheat, wheat flour and meal destined for consumption in Holland should be consigned to the Netherlands government.
"2. Shipments of all other articles on the British contraband lists destined for consumption in Holland should be consigned to the Netherlands Overseas Trust.

The Netherlands-American, the Royal Holland Lloyd and the Royal Steamship Company have instructed their agents that shipments of cocoa, coffee and tobacco must also be consigned to the Netherlands Overseas Trust.

Minnie Gilden, four years old, was burned at her home in Baltimore when her hair ribbon caught fire from an oil lamp, and died later in a hospital. Only a small section of her body escaped the flames.

WILLIAM THAW, AMERICAN FLIER, REPORTED KILLED NEAR VERDUN

PARIS, April 22.—A report has been received here that William Thaw, an American aviator serving with the French army, has been killed near Verdun. The report has not been confirmed, however. A post card dated the 17th, sent by him to a friend, showed that he was in good health on that date.

PITTSBURGH, April 22.—It was said at the residence of Benjamin Thaw, father of William Thaw, today that no report regarding the death of Mr.
Thaw had been received, and members of the family were inclined to discredit it. The elder Mr. Thaw re-

LONDON, April 22.—A Paris dispatch to the Central News says that the opening session of the Hungarian chamber was a gloomy sitting. The chamber refused to vote the new military credits

SAYS ALLIES' VICTORY WILL BE COSTLY ONE

Col. Arthur Hamilton Lee Thinks Hardest Battles of War Are Yet to Come.

LONDON, April 22.—Arthur Hamilton Lee, M. P., who was British military attache with the United States army during the Spanish-American war, and who married Miss Ruth Moore of New York, is at present serving as a colonel on the continent. He has written a letter home from the British headquarters in France, in which he says:

"The allies have it in their power to win, but this does not mean that victory is close at hand or that the hardest fighting and the heaviest losses are not yet to come.

Germans Not Defeated.
"The vast German armies occupying and devastating a great part of France and most of Belgium are held in check.
It is true, but in no sense are they defeated.

"Our men at the front are keen, skilled and determined, and our victory at Neuve Chapelle has filled them with enthusiasm and confidence. Their one desire now is to advance, but this they cannot do without better support from their mates and rulers at home. They fully realize that the casualties already incurred must be doubled and trebled before the victory finally is won. They cannot understand why the greatest manufacturing country in the world should not supply them with sufficient shells eight months after the outbreak of the war, and they express themselves freely on this subject.

Cannot Count Cost.
"In the meanwhile we all must make up lost time, not counting the cost.
Men and shells, in an increasing stream, are the need of the hour."

Col. Lee retired from the army in 1900, but rejoined in 1914 and was appointed special service officer with the expeditionary force to the continent.
He was British military attache at Washington in 1899-1900.

Shortly after leaving his home for his usual morning walk, William C.
Scherer, sixty-two years old, of Baltimore, lost his life by drowning in the boat lake at Druid Hill Park.

TO INCREASE U. S. EXPORTS.
Federal Trade Commission Seeking Effective Methods.

Effective methods of increasing American export trade are to be studied by the federal trade commission. Hearings on this question are to be held by the commission, it was announced, and it is probable that they will be conducted in various parts of the country.
However, the dates and places have not yet been announced.

The decision to study this course came as a result of inquiries made in the past few days by members of chambers of commerce throughout the country as to whether such inquiries would be beneficial to business or detrimental in any way. It was said that those whose views were obtained favored the hearings.

Following a conference with Attorney General Gregory and G. Carroll Todd, assistant attorney general in charge of trust prosecutions, it was announced that there would be complete cooperation and no conflict of jurisdiction between the commission and the Department of Justice.

LAST FRENCH CLAIM ARGUED.

Spoilation Suits Grow Out of Reprisals During War.

The last of the so-called French spoliation cases arising out of difficulties between this country and France more than a century ago have just been argued and submitted to the Court of Claims.

In all 5,569 cases have been adjudicated before this court and Congress has appropriated almost $4,000,000 in payment of that court's findings.
There remains to be paid about $1,000-000 more.

These cases arose after Congress passed an act authorizing American citizens having valid claims for indemnity against the French government, prior to the treaty of 1860, to bring suit to recover.

The claims grew out of reprisals on American commerce made after the United States had failed to keep the terms of an early treaty with France when that nation was at war with England.

Thelma L. Zepp, fifteen years old, died at a Baltimore hospital from a dose of poison which she had taken about an hour before at the home of her mother.
